

BAS Agent Registration Skill Set FNSSS00004: Study Online with International Institute of Technology

If you're looking to become a BAS agent in Australia, choosing the right training can be an important step towards meeting the education requirements of the Tax Practitioners Board (TPB).

The FNSSS00004 BAS Agent Registration Skill Set provides focused training for people wanting to develop practical knowledge in BAS, GST, bookkeeping and Australian taxation requirements.

At International Institute of Technology (IIT), you can complete the course 100% online and self-paced, with up to 8 months to complete your studies and full support throughout your course.

Why choose the BAS Agent Skill Set with IIT?

Studying with IIT gives you the flexibility to complete your BAS training around work, family and other commitments.

You have up to 8 months to complete the course, giving you plenty of time to work through the learning materials and assessments without the pressure of a short completion timeframe. 100% online & self-paced so you may choose to complete this earlier.

Study when it suits you. There are no compulsory classroom sessions, so you can work through your course at a pace that fits around your existing commitments.

Whether you're working as a bookkeeper, running your own business or looking to expand your accounting skills, online study gives you the flexibility to learn when and where you choose.

Full support throughout your course

You're not left to work everything out yourself.

IIT provides full learner support throughout your studies, helping you understand the learning materials and assessments and giving you guidance as you progress through the course.

Practical Xero or MYOB case study

One of the biggest benefits of the IIT course is the opportunity to put your learning into practice.

You'll complete a practical Xero or MYOB case study, helping you apply your knowledge to realistic accounting and bookkeeping activities.

This gives you experience working with accounting software rather than simply learning the theory.

What will you learn?

The BAS Agent Registration Skill Set covers important areas relevant to providing BAS services, including:

- GST and BAS requirements
- Business Activity Statements
- PAYG withholding
- PAYG instalments
- Transaction recording
- Accounting and bookkeeping principles
- Australian taxation requirements
- Compliance and reporting
- Practical bookkeeping processes

The knowledge gained can be particularly valuable for bookkeepers and accounting professionals wanting to expand the services they can offer.

Who is this course suitable for?

The course can be particularly useful for:

- Bookkeepers wanting to expand their services
- Accounting professionals

- Accounts officers
- Payroll professionals
- Small-business bookkeepers
- People working towards BAS agent registration
- Existing bookkeeping businesses
- Anyone wanting to develop practical BAS and GST knowledge

Can this course help me become a registered BAS agent?

The FNSSS00004 skill set can form part of an individual's pathway towards BAS agent registration, but completing the course does not automatically make you a registered BAS agent.

The Tax Practitioners Board (TPB) assesses individual applications and applicants must satisfy the applicable registration requirements, which may include education, relevant experience, fit and proper requirements and professional indemnity insurance.

It's therefore important to check the current TPB requirements for your individual circumstances before applying for registration. If you don't have a primary qualification in Accounting, complete the FNS40222 Certificate IV in Accounting and Bookkeeping with International Institute of Technology, which will include the BAS agent units of FNSTP411 and FNSTPB412

A practical pathway for bookkeepers

For someone already working in bookkeeping, completing BAS-focused training can be a valuable way to build on existing skills.

You may already have experience with:

Bookkeeping → Xero/MYOB → GST → BAS preparation → BAS services

The BAS Agent Registration Skill Set can help strengthen your knowledge in the areas required to provide BAS-related services.

Study BAS Online with International Institute of Technology- Approved Tax Practitioner Board provider.

With International Institute of Technology, you can complete your BAS Agent Registration Skill Set:

- ✓ 100% online
- ✓ Self-paced learning
- ✓ Up to 8 months to complete
- ✓ Full trainer and learner support
- ✓ Practical Xero or MYOB case study
- ✓ Designed for flexible study around work and life
- ✓ Focused BAS, GST and bookkeeping training

If you're ready to expand your bookkeeping skills and work towards the BAS agent registration pathway, the FNSSS00004 BAS Agent Registration Skill Set is a practical place to start.

Enrol online with International Institute of Technology and start studying at your own pace.

BAS Agent Registration Skill Set: Study Online with International Institute of Technology

If you're looking to become a BAS agent in Australia, choosing the right training is an important step towards meeting the education requirements of the Tax Practitioners Board (TPB).

The FNSSS00004 BAS Agent Registration Skill Set provides focused training in BAS, GST, bookkeeping and Australian taxation requirements.

At International Institute of Technology (IIT), you can complete the course 100% online and self-paced.

What's included in the BAS Agent Skill Set?

The FNSSS00004 BAS Agent Registration Skill Set includes two important units:

FNSTPB411 – Complete Business Activity and Instalment Activity Statements

This unit develops the skills and knowledge required to prepare and complete Business Activity Statements (BAS) and Instalment Activity Statements (IAS), including relevant GST and taxation obligations.

FNSTPB412 – Complete Business Activity Statements

This unit focuses on the practical requirements for completing BAS-related work accurately and in accordance with relevant Australian taxation and reporting requirements.

Together, these units provide focused training in the areas relevant to BAS preparation and services.

Important: Training is one part of the BAS agent registration pathway. Completing the skill set does not automatically provide BAS agent registration. The Tax Practitioners Board (TPB) determines whether an individual satisfies the applicable registration requirements.

You'll have the opportunity to work through a practical Xero or MYOB case study, allowing you to apply your knowledge to realistic bookkeeping and BAS-related activities.

This practical component can help you develop confidence using accounting software in a real-world context.

What will you learn?

Through FNSTPB411 and FNSTPB412, you'll develop knowledge and skills relating to:

- Business Activity Statements
- Instalment Activity Statements
- GST calculations and reporting

- BAS preparation
- PAYG instalments
- BAS-related taxation obligations
- Australian taxation and reporting requirements
- Accurate recording and reporting
- Practical accounting software applications

Take the next step towards BAS services

For an experienced bookkeeper, developing specialist BAS knowledge can be a valuable way to expand your professional skills and services.

With International Institute of Technology, you can complete the FNSSS00004 BAS Agent Registration Skill Set online, at your own pace, with practical software experience and ongoing support.

FNSSS00004 BAS Agent Registration Skill Set

FNSTPB411 + FNSTPB412

8 months | Online | Self-paced | Full Support | Xero or MYOB Case Study

Start your BAS training today with International Institute of Technology.